SOLDIERS STEAL AUTO ORGANIZING VIRGINIA

Attack Driver and Companion Whom They Bind and Leave by Roadside Then Depart With Machine

A brutal attack upon two boys, whom they bound and gagged, and the theft from them of a Willy-Overland automobile valued at $1,400, with which it is supposed they escaped in the direction of either Baltimore or Richmond, is the charge made against two soldiers at police headquarters in this city.

The names of the boys are Joseph R. Downey, 16 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Downey, of Del Ray, and Colton Moore, aged 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moore of this city. The former was the chauffeur of the car which was owned by the lad's father of the Mount Vernon Garage, this city.

Just before 8 o'clock last night a telephone message was received at the garage asking that an automobile be sent to the corner of King and St. Asaph street, to carry passengers to Braddock, a suburb of Alexandria. Downey, who was on duty in company with young Moore, was sent with the car. They found two soldiers were to be the passengers, took them in and proceeded to North Braddock where they were ordered to stop the car. They did so, whereupon the boys say the soldiers drew revolvers, and then attacked them with their fists. Downey says he was knocked down. Moore was also badly handled. Both boys were gagged, tied together and left by the roadside, after which the soldiers got in the car and sped away in the darkness in a westerly direction.

The Moore boy managed to break the cords with which he was bound and then helped Downey to get free. They got to a telephone, notified the men at the garage and police headquarters and Chief Goods and Sergeant Wilkinson, accompanied by Wm. E. Moore, Edward Downey and H. M. Moore started out in search of the men and auto, but thus far their efforts have been in vain.

Two soldiers, one named McClary, another called Davis, are said to have called at Cockey's candy store on King street, last night about 8 o'clock and are reported to have been using the telephone there about the time the message was received at the garage. Whether they were the parties wanted or not, is, of course, not known. The license tag on the stolen car was marked D 87.

VICIOUS NEGRO FINED.

Darkey Who Armed Himself With Stones and Cursed Policemen Brought Before Police Court.

Ernest Lloyd, alias "Muts" Grooms, who with his brother, known as "Little Muts," fought and defied Officers Talbot, Nevett, Bell and Kerns at colored Odd Fellows' Hall on the night of October 8, was arraigned in the Police Court this morning to answer the charge of disorderly conduct and assault and was fined $10. He was represented by Robinson Moncre.

According to the testimony of the officers, the two brothers were engaged in a row in Odd Fellows' Hall when the police were summoned. The two Lloyds, who were said to be the principals, resisted the officers, and when they reached the sidewalk with the younger negro he broke away and threw stones at the conservators of the peace, one striking Officer Talbot on the arm. The elder also armed himself with stones and applying an ugly epithet to the officers defied them to shoot. In the excitement he too made his escape, and was arrested in Washington Tuesday and brought to this city.

MAJOR PETERSON ARRESTED.

Former N. C. Paymaster General Charged With Embezzling $7,600 During Time He Was in Office.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 8.—Major George L. Peterson, former State paymaster-general of the North Carolina National Guard, now major on the Quartermaster's staff of the Thirtieth Division at Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. C., was arrested here last night on the charge of embezzling $7,600 during the four years he held the State office. Major Peterson waived preliminary examination before a justice of the peace, and was placed in the custody of the sheriff of Wake county upon failure to furnish $10,000 bond.

People of the State Asked to Contribute $400,000 for Relief Work Among the Soldiers.

As has been stated in the columns of the Gazette, a committee has been appointed in Alexandria to assist in the raising of cash to carry on relief work among the soldiers by the Young Men's Christian Association. The residents of every state in the Union will be expected to do their duty in this important matter.

Alexandria boys are already in France and more are soon to follow. Shall they be neglected? They will offer their lives, if need be, to uphold the honor of their native state and the flag of their country. Let no one refuse to do all in their power to make them as comfortable as possible.

J. J. Virgo, now general secretary at the London Young Men's Christian Association, telling of his 60,000-mile trip all along the various fighting lines, said it was his belief that the two indispensable adjuncts of the fighting forces are the Y. M. C. A. and the Red Cross.

Emphasis was laid on this statement from Mr. Virgo at the headquarters of the Virginia war work council of the Y. M. C. A., where State Chairman Carrington is rounding out the work of organizing Virginia for the campaign for funds with which to extend the war camp work. Virginia is expected to raise $400,000 from Nov. 11 to 19 inclusive. The total amount for the United States is $35,000,000.

Mr. Virgo said he had dodged submarines and had seen ships blown up by torpedoes, and felt that when he set foot on English soil he was done with these things for a while. But the very first night he was potted from overhead by airplanes. "Conditions in London," he said, "are really very serious. The raids are frequent, and when the enemy planes are sighted a warning is sent to everybody to take to cover."

Relating two instances of enemy atrocities he said it would make his hearers realize that "We have got to get this thing finished up quickly; that the sooner everyone realizes that everything we do to fit those magnificent fellows for their job, the more we will expedite the war."

The Y. M. C. A., Mr. Virgo said, helps keep the fighting men fit and keeps up the morale, so necessary for effective fighting. Telling of the coming of Australian and New Zealand troops to Cairo, Egypt, he said a vicious quarrel sprang up which lured the boys, and a shipload of them had to be sent back home as unfit to fight. A bunch of the boys later wrecked the place, he said, and then the Y. M. C. A. came. After much effort the Y. leased a garden and opened it for the boys. This put an end to the lure of the red lights.

The same temptations confronted the men returning to England for furlough he averred, and told how the Y. M. C. A. is combating the temptation by furnishing lodgings to the men who remain in London over night. He also told of the work of women in saving the boys in khaki—how they start out with automobiles at midnight to round up stragglers and invite them to the Y. refugees.

Mr. Virgo described with some detail the work on the firing line of the Y. M. C. A. men, even in the front trenches, where, he said, the hut may be only large enough for three men at a time, but where there are hot coffee or chocolate and other things the men need. The Y. M. C. A. workers have the same risks as the soldiers. Their huts are blown up, and they are under shell fire for hours.

Dutch Supper This Evening.

There will be a Dutch supper at the Anne Lee Memorial Home for the Aged this evening from 5 to 8 o'clock. A most bountiful repast has been provided, and the ladies in charge promise that, on account of the war, the portions will be most generous.

Notice.

Washington Memorial Lodge of Perfection No. 7 will hold its regular meeting, Friday, Nov. 9, 1917, at 7:30. All members and visitors are invited to be present. Immediately after the close of the lodge, Randolph Chapter No. 3, Knights Rose Croix, will confer the fifteenth degree.

Alexandria City and Suburbs

In the Corporation Court today Judge Barley confirmed the election of Samuel Medley and B. Pendleton as trustees of the Alfred Street Baptist church.

A group meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Potomac Baptist Association, representing seventeen churches, is being held today in the First Baptist church of this city. Mrs. Carpenter, of Del Ray, is President.

Mrs. Kate Woolford Pattison, wife of George B. Carlin, passed away this morning at 6:15 at the family home, 311 South St. Asaph street, in this city. The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the house, Rev. E. V. Regester officiating. The interment will be private. Besides her husband the deceased is survived by three sons, Milton F. Carlin, of Atlanta, Ga.; Harry S. Carlin, of Washington, D. C.; and Russell H. Carlin, of Alexandria. She was a native of Cambridge, Md., and a sister of the late Governor Robert E. Pattison, of Pennsylvania. Mrs. Carlin was the first worthy Matron of Martha Washington Chapter, Order Eastern Star, and her death will be sincerely mourned by a wide circle of friends in this city and elsewhere.

CANADIANS HOLD GAINS

Germans Disregard Von Hindenburg's Orders to Retake City.

British Front in Belgium, Nov. 8. Field Marshal von Hindenburg's stern edict that if the Germans lost Passchendaele village it must be retaken at all costs has not stirred his beaten troops to action. The intrepid Canadians were still standing as they had for 20 hours, along a line well beyond this vital point, although rain drenched and shivering under the biting autumn wind in their muddy fastnesses.

Passchendaele, whose spires not long ago showed picturesquely against the sky from their elevated position, is now a memory. The little hamlet has all but disappeared under the deluge of shells. It was not the village that counted, however, but its inviolable site. From it one may see a great distance out across occupied Belgium, and the possibilities for artillery work from here are wide in scope. Its loss threatens the retention by the Germans of their defenses for many miles. Field Marshal Haig and the Canadians on the spot are watching to see what the enemy's next move may be.

Rain continued to fall yesterday rendering the task of keeping up communications still more difficult, but the British engineers appear capable of coping with any situation. Military movements were proceeding steadily during the day over the viaduct below the ridges.

TELL OF MISERY IN BERLIN

Returning Americans Report Hunger and Cold More Serious Than Ever.

New York, Nov. 8.—Several Americans who had been living in Berlin, some of whom left Germany only a month ago, arrived at an Atlantic port, yesterday. Edgar Gerst, who had been studying music in Berlin five years, said the poorer class in Germany are suffering more than ever for lack of food and clothing. Many were poorly clad when he left there, with no prospect of keeping warm this winter.

Miss Ellen Wanfolk, another American, brought from Berlin 34 ornaments of brass and copper weighing nearly 100 pounds. She said she had more trouble getting them through Denmark than out of Germany. She had to appeal for a milk ticket in Berlin, as she became ill for lack of nourishing food and was given one of the kind of tickets that are distributed for babies. She also was allowed a pound of oatmeal a week—a ration meant only for persons more than 60 years old.

Women, she said, are operating practically all the transit lines in Germany, and accidents have increased from 200 to 500 per cent, but this is partly due to inferior materials used in the manufacture of such things as cables. She also said that men in Germany are allowed only two pair of trousers a year and women are limited to three dresses.

The commissioners of election met this morning in the clerk's office and canvassed the vote of Tuesday last and certified the same to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, at Richmond.

A delightful social service was enjoyed by the members of Bethel congregation at their synagogue on Washington street last night. The exercises included an eloquent address by Rabbi Abram Simon, of Washington, who spoke on "The Duties of the Jewish Women," with special reference to the war situation. His address is pronounced one of the best heard in Alexandria in a long time. Mr. B. Weil also made brief remarks in welcoming Rabbi Simon. Vocal music was rendered by a quartet composed of Mrs. H. Friedlander, Mrs. Wm. P. Woods, Mr. Kenneth W. Ogden and Mr. M. L. Dinwiddie, and Wm. Friedlander gave a violin solo, accompanied by Mrs. Chas. G. Lennon. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the literary part of the program. The affair was given under the direction of the Bethel Temple Sisterhood, Mrs. A. Dreifus presiding.

MARRIED LAST NIGHT.

Pretty Wedding at Which Miss Corrie M. Tyler Becomes Bride of Sergeant B. L. Wannall.

"Neath the folds of Old Glory, one of the season's prettiest weddings was solemnized last night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Tyler, in South Pitt street, this city, when their daughter, Miss Corrie M. Tyler, became the bride of Sergeant Bernard L. Wannall, attached to the Headquarters Company of the Provisional Machine Gun Regiment, Camp Green, Charlotte, North Carolina, formerly the Third Regiment, D. C. National Guard. To the strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, the couple entered the parlor, where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Louis Smet, pastor of St. Mary's church. They had as their attendant, Miss Elsie Collum and Willard Tyler. The wedding march was played by William A. De Vaughan. The bride was attired in a gown of taupe satin and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The maid of honor wore brown pussy-willow taffeta. After the ceremony a reception was held, at which the newly-weds received the congratulations of their many friends.

Among those present were Mrs. M. E. Wannall, mother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Tyler, parents of the bride, Mrs. B. Quigley, Miss Leona Wannall, sisters of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. De Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. T. Dove, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herbert, Mrs. Bayliss Mrs. Dora Dunn, Mrs. L. Wilcox, Mrs. James Smith, Miss Eva Smith, Jennie Rosenberg, Elizabeth Hantzman, Ruby Davis, Elsie Collum, L. Herbert, and Inez Taylor, Messrs. James Taylor, L. Mortimer, Abe Rosenberg, Allen Tyler, W. A. De Vaughan, and E. B. De Vaughan.

Free Kindergarten.

The regular monthly meeting of the Kindergarten Association was held Tuesday afternoon at 301 South St. Asaph street. The following contributions were thankfully received: Miss Eliza Roberts and Mrs. John Leadbeater, two dollars each; Mrs. M. W. O'Brien, Mrs. L. E. Uhler, Miss Constance Boush, Miss Collins Jones, Miss M. E. Carlin, one dollar each.

The Kindergarten reported forty-four pupils, a large number of visits made and a most interesting mother's meeting. A portable grate is needed. The directors would deeply appreciate the loan of one to the kindergarten. Mr. De Witt Aitchison is thanked for his annual contribution of coal.

Swims Across Golden Gate.

San Francisco, Nov. 8.—For the first time in the swimming history of the Pacific Coast a woman swam a round-trip course across the Golden Gate yesterday.

She was Miss Hazel Cunningham, an 18-year-old nurse. Her time was 1 hour 35 minutes and 25 seconds. The course each way was seven-eighths of a mile.

The swim was unofficial, but had the sanction of the Pacific Coast Athletic Association.

Captain A. Lenner Uhler, stationed at Atlanta, Ga., is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Uhler, of 202 North Washington street.

Owing to the fact that the booths for the Autumn Festival are being put in Lyceum Hall, the regular entertainment to have been given for the benefit of the soldiers will not be held this evening.

The prayer service to be held at the Ann Lee Memorial Home tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, will be led by the Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison. The "blue book" will be used and all will be welcome.

Christ church in this city was the scene of a marriage ceremony yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock when Miss Margaret Lewis Maupin became the wife of Mr. Rex Corbin Spencer Maupin. Both parties reside in Washington, D. C. The bridegroom had as his best man, Captain Maupin, of the United States army. Others who witnessed the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Jones and Mrs. Richard Washington, of this city, Miss Spotswood, of Richmond, and other relatives from out of town. The Rev. Wm. J. Morton, rector of the church, was the officiating clergyman.

SUBMARINE WARFARE.

Marked Decrease in Toll of Under-sea Boats During Past Week.

London, Nov. 8.—A marked decrease in the British merchant ships sunk during the last week is noted in the Admiralty report last night. Only eight vessels over 1,600 tons were sunk by mine or submarine and four vessels under that tonnage. No fishing vessels were sunk. The summary:

Arrivals, 2,684; sailings, 2,379. British merchant vessels over 1,600 tons sunk by mine or submarine, including two previously, eight; under 1,600 tons, including one previously, four.

Fishing vessels sunk, none. British merchant vessels unsuccessfully attacked, including five previously, six.

The sinkings of British merchant ships recorded in the latest Admiralty report are the smallest in point of number since the unrestricted submarine warfare began early in the war. They probably are smallest in tonnage also, for while in the week ending September 16, only eight vessels of 1,600 tons or over were sunk, twenty vessels under that tonnage were destroyed. The next best record in point of number was in the week ending September 30, when thirteen vessels were sunk, eleven large and two small.

CHARGED WITH THEFT.

Negro Alleged to Have Taken a Pair of Shoes From a Railroad Car.

Special Officer Schafer last night arrested a negro known as John Henry Hall on the charge of stealing a pair of shoes from a car. He was placed in the station house in this city. Hall was released from the penitentiary three weeks ago, he having served a term for stealing a barrel of whisky from a railway car.

The penalty of the law does not seem to have any terrors for some negroes, and the above brings to mind a case which occurred in Alexandria a long time ago. A negro named Charles Manley was hanged in the city jail March 28, 1873, for murdering a white man. Among those who witnessed the execution was a negro from Washington, who returned to the capital city the same night and murdered a cattle drover named Frank Hahn. He was later hanged for the crime.

Millville, N. J., Nov. 8.—Leroy Leek, 5 years old, is dead and Emma his 3-year-old sister, is in a serious condition at the Millville Hospital, the result of having eaten poison tablets used to destroy rats and which the children thought were candy. Both were stricken violently ill while playing at their home on Sherman avenue, and a physician administered emetic and rushed them to the hospital, but the boy died shortly after being admitted.

The little girl is in a serious condition, but hopes are entertained for her recovery.

LOST ANOTHER CHANCE RED CROSS ACTIVITIES

"Lots of People in the Church Who Think They are not Wicked Enough to go to Hell."

The Rev. E. V. Regester punctuated his sermon at the revival meeting at the Methodist Church South last night with some practical and forcible truths. In reference to past opportunities which had not been taken advantage of by those still indifferent to the call of God, he said:

You have lost another chance to get right with God. There are lots of people in the church who think they are not wicked enough to go to hell—they are just shaving the line. They come to the Sunday service, but not to the mid-week prayer service. You may like to think Jesus Christ was talking about the "other fellow." You who are talking about the "other fellow" ought to ask God for forgiveness. Your own conscience and feelings are not a standard by which to measure yourself. Unless your religion can stand the test of the world you are not worthy of Him.

"The wicked shall be turned into hell and all the nations that forget God, Psalm 9:17," said the speaker.

Mrs. C. E. Outcalt sang beautifully, "Have You Forgotten God?" The indictment of the scripture and the song is a verdict to you unconvinced people who have forgotten God. Oh, how the song recalls the holy thought of God—keep before you always that at sometime you must give an account of yourself before God.

How many have had the actual experience of, "Floods of joy o'er my soul like the sea billows roll, Since Jesus came into my heart." Open your heart; let the Saviour come in. It just takes a moment to get right with God.

Hell is not a very pleasant thing to think about. Some members of the church would like to revise it out of their conscience. It is such a rude expression. But what the Bible says is always true. The only way to get rid of hell is to join the Russellites. They passed a resolution that there is no hell. There is a place of real great punishment in the plan of God. He did not make that place for his children, but for the Devil and his angels. It is not pleasant, but Jesus told us there is a Hell. You may say God is love and that He would never make such a place, but the scripture has the signature of Divine authority. Now if you are foolish enough to set up your own judgment against God's will I have nothing to tell you. If you have a debate it is with God and not with me.

If some of you Christians did reach heaven it would be hell to you. You would be uncomfortable without a barroom, pool, cards, dancing, etc. The carelessness of your life is criminal to God. Some of you think you are fooling God and are marching with rhythmic motion with the saints of God. Unless you are right with all—God and men—you are with those of condemnation. Some of you are worse than Judas. You are betraying the Lord for the price of a single sin, or a life of sin. You can wax sore over the crucifixion of Jesus. Have you no tears for yourself? "Remember thy creator in the days of thy youth." Don't wait for the years and the world to harden your heart. Don't wait for the devil to wrap his slimy self about you. Let God come into your heart.

Notes.
Meeting tonight at 7:45.
Dr. Allison will be the leader of the prayer service on Friday at 8 o'clock. Ladies' prayer service, Tuesday, 10 a. m.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8.—Fire of undetermined origin in the Willard Hotel a Louisville landmark, early yesterday created a panic among the 200 guests, a score of whom, trapped on the upper floors, were taken out through windows. Damage to the structure was estimated at $100,000.

First police reports that one fireman had lost his life and that three other persons had been fatally hurt were supplemented by the statement that but one person, Pipeman Ed. ward McCue would likely die from his burns. McCue rushed through a wall of smoke and fire to the rescue of a woman he believed in peril.

Exhibit of Hospital Supplies Attracting Much Attention—To be Open all the Week

Great interest is being shown in the exhibition of surgical dressings, hospital garments and supplies, and knitted articles which are being made by the Red Cross. There was a large attendance at the exhibit both yesterday and today. One window is devoted to the display of the latest surgical dressings, which the women of the Red Cross are urged to make. The other window is filled with knitted garments and hospital supplies. The larger hospital garments such as operating gowns, hospital bed shirts, pajamas and bath robes may be seen inside. All the garments exhibited are made according to the latest patterns which were authorized only after the return of representatives of the Woman's Bureau of the National Red Cross who made a special study of the requirements and urgent needs of the French hospitals. It is hoped that many will examine these models and volunteer their assistance in the making of some of these garments which even now those who represent us on the fighting line, are needing.

An interesting collection of finished work which has been turned in recently from the branches is also on hand. Knitted articles including sweaters, wristlets, helmets, etc., from the Rosemont branch, hospital garments and supplies, as well as a sample "Housewife" from the Jefferson branch, and dozens of triangular bandages from the Braddock branch show that the women from these localities as well as those in town have been doing their "bit."

Remember the place is 529 King street. Drop in any time from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., Friday or Saturday.

The surgical dressing work rooms over Burke and Herbert's bank will be open tomorrow, Friday, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m., for work. Every one trained in making surgical dressings is urged to go there and help. The need for dressings now is urgent. A recent cable received by the American National Red Cross from Major Murphy said: "The Red Cross has direct responsibility of supplying us with surgical dressings, and nothing in the whole situation here is equally important. Red Cross standard dressings in millions must be sent over with all possible speed. If this is not done immediately a serious calamity and national disgrace is inevitable. The American women who compose the Red Cross chapters should prepare with all the enthusiasm and speed possible the dressings which are going to mean life or death to our own men. This whole question deals with the most vital thing that the women of America can do for the soldiers in this war."

Those desiring to enter a surgical dressing training class should communicate with Mrs. Harry D. Kirk, the supervisor, at once. The first lesson in the course will be given at the workroom on Thursday, November 15th.

A largely attended and very enthusiastic meeting of the Braddock branch of the Red Cross was held last night. It was decided that the meetings of the branch for work should be held in the future on Tuesday evenings and Wednesday afternoons. The workroom is now located in the residence of Mrs. J. Johnson Greene and is splendidly equipped with a new western electric sewing machine loaned for the purpose by the Alexandria County Lighting Company. Through the courtesy of the Singer Company another sewing machine has also been installed. Braddock expects to be a large contributor to the work of the chapter during the winter.

Tomorrow and for the balance of the week Geo. E. Price and Co., will have for sale, rock fish, Potomac bass, white perch, trout and pollock. 268-11.

FISH DAY TOMORROW
Potomac bass, large yellow perch, steak pollock, newdram yellow perch, North Carolina rock, salt trout and salt water oysters. Sanitary Fish Market, City Market, Stall 42. Phone 735. Open till 5 p. m. Will be glad to see all my old customers. 268-11.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Pointing out that, in the opportunity "to serve mankind as we once served ourselves in the great day of our Declaration of Independence," the nation has just cause to be grateful, President Wilson has issued his Thanksgiving proclamation. He calls upon the people to cease their ordinary occupations on Thursday, November 29, and devote themselves to worship.

The proclamation will be found in full elsewhere in the Gazette. Like other productions of President Wilson, it is to the point and cannot be summarized without impairing its force.

The Kaiser assumes God is with the Germans in their work of bloodshed and destruction, and the fact that one has been a Teuton soldier, he dreams, will render him immune at the day of judgment.

Our President assumes no such position with the Great Ruler of the Universe, but acts in the spirit of the observation of old—Nisi Dominus Frustra—"Unless the Lord go before you, all your efforts will be in vain." and he calls upon the people of the country to assemble on the 29th instant and render thanks for the many blessings we have enjoyed, and to invoke Him, who cannot look upon sin with the least allowance to bless our arms in the country's war of defense against a cruel and mighty foe.

FUTURE OF PALESTINE.

"And Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled." These words were uttered nearly nineteen hundred years ago by the Son of Man while overlooking the Jewish capital. The City of the Great King, has long been under Moslem rule, while Zionists have been looking forward to the day when it shall be once more the capital of their nation. In the meantime those of Hebrew birth who live in Jerusalem have been praying outside the walls for the deliverance of the city from Gentile control.

We live in a day of startling transitions. The British army is now drawing nigh to Jerusalem. Beer-sheba, Gaza and other places prominent in the Bible have fallen into the hands of the British, and there is every reason to believe that Jerusalem will soon pass out of the hands of the Turks into those of the British.

During the prevalence of the present war it has been suggested by certain European statesmen that Palestine be turned over to the descendants of Abraham, and that the Kingdom of Israel be re-established in order to place a buffer between Egypt and Turkey.

"The times of the Gentiles" may be drawing to a close.

The following from the Chemnitz Volksstimme, the Social Democratic organ of Saxony is suggestive:

"There remains a means toward facilitating the approach of peace. This consists in the goodwill and may be termed members of the international nation—the Jews."

"The Jewish nation may be used for that it is intended to be—a potent bond of union between the nations of the earth. In Germany, in Austria, in Russia, in London and New York there live great Jewish populations who are daily becoming conscious of their distinct nationality, but who, nevertheless, are very strongly united to the life and culture of the people among whom they reside.

"Let us exert ourselves in every possible way to utilize the powerful Jewish influence to hasten the coming of peace. The entente politicians have once again shown they have grasped the full importance of this circumstance. The central powers, however, have failed singularly in this respect. They must act at once. Nothing they can do in this direction can be too much."

NO COMPROMISE PEACE.

Count Czernin has gone to Berlin, and that usually means another peace overture. There has been a grand council in Berlin, and that generally precedes another equal for peace. The Vatican hears that fresh German peace overtures will be made before the end of the year, and the Amsterdam Telegraaf's correspondent from Germany indicates the food situation is even worse than it has been represented to be.

A contemporary says this is the moment for striking the hardest possible blows at Germany and Austria; not for talking about peace in the allied countries.

Of course, peace can be had by either side at any time by merely giving up to the other. But when signs of distress in Germany and Austria are multiplying every day it is no time for the allies to formulate minimum terms of peace. This would only silence the peace talk in Germany, and nerve the Germans to endure distress a little longer in the hope that the allies will give up first.

The allies will not give up first, and they have not yet talked peace and they are not approaching exhaustion. Germany, and still more Austria, are approaching it. Keep up the pressure on them. Make them feel the war more and more, and the time will come in the near future when the Germans will find means of compelling the Imperial Government to sue for peace, even if the Kaiser has to abdicate.

The allies cannot afford to make a compromise peace. There is no security with Germany until Germany acknowledges that it has been beaten.

The safety of the world imperatively demands that Germany be actually beaten and not compromised with on terms that will leave it more dangerous than it was in 1914.

LIMITATIONS OF KULTUR.

(Philadelphia Record.) "German Kultur has done its work thoroughly with the intellectuals. Persons who have had the advantages of a university education, or contact with the higher circles of society and the business world, have eradicated all the instincts of humanity or regard for civilization, Christianity and law, and are willing to deny, or to justify according to circumstances, the massacre of Belgians, the enslavement of a conquered population, and the murder of prisoners and the wounded to save the expense of feeding them."

But among the common people who have not had university education or official training, there are rudimentary feelings of humanity and fragments of the Christian religion which have survived the army discipline. So there are some German soldiers who early in the war recoiled from the orders to shoot Russian prisoners, and even wrote to the American Ambassador in Berlin begging him to protest against it. There is at least one German soldier, untrained by the university professors, who loathed his military duty of conducting 47 Belgian women and girls to severe manual labor on defenses under fire. A considerable number of German soldiers wrote letters or diaries in which they recorded their horror at the acts their officers commanded them to do in Belgium.

But, of course, for the most part the German Moloch found men enough to obey its horrid orders. And those who have sickened or gone insane by reason of the atrocities they have been compelled to commit did not dare disobey orders. If they did not kill Russian prisoners and Belgian women and children their officers would kill them.

German naval vessels destroyed a fleet of Swedish merchant steamers, and their armed convoy. It was not enough to sink the vessels; they sunk the lifeboats to prevent escape, and shot the crews in the water. "Leave no trace" was the motto of the German naval commanders, as it was the advice of the German Minister to Argentina.

Miss L. H. Raines, of King George, was operated on at St. Luke's Hospital, Richmond, Tuesday, by Dr. Stuart McGuire. Her condition is favorable, though she is very weak.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

Mr. Charles F. McGuire, died suddenly at his home in Hoboken, N. J., on Thursday last, aged 46. He was a son of the late Dr. J. M. G. McGuire, of Richmond, and a son-in-law of Hon. Marshall McCormick, of Berryville.

James Scott, colored, in a fit of jealousy, attacked his sweetheart, Minnie Tatum, with a knife in Petersburg Tuesday night, and inflicted several severe wounds. Scott then attempted suicide by jumping into the river, but the cold water brought him back to his senses, and he swam out, only to be arrested when he came out of the water.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Clyburn and family of Arcola are expected to leave soon, much to the regret of their many friends. Mrs. Clyburn and children will visit relatives in W. Va., before moving to their new home at Cherrydale, Va.—Leesburg Mirror.

The marriage of William Taylor and Miss Rosalie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Smith, of "Cantering," King George county, took place Wednesday afternoon, November 7th, at 3:30 o'clock at St. Paul's church, at Port Conway, in that county, Rev. G. McL. Brydon, of Richmond, performing the ceremony. They will make their home in King George county.

The decomposed body of a middle-aged man was found with the skeleton of a collie dog lying across his breast, by workmen who are tearing down the old Beach House at Atlantic City, N. J. The gruesome discovery was unearthed in a cistern which had not been used for a number of years. In the pockets was a letter postmarked Forest Hill, Va., November 8, 1916. Almerin Marston, a former hotel proprietor, informed the police that the remains answered the description of John McCarthy, of Forest Hill, Va., and that he was forty-three years old, a stone-cutter and of a roving disposition. He had employed him once as he knew the family, his sister being Mrs. Benjamin Schutte of that place. Marston said he had not seen McCarthy since last spring.

RICHARDSON'S DECISION.

Overrules Demurrer in Webster Case, Involving State Court's Authority.

The question of whether or not the state courts should have jurisdiction over cases involving the transportation of liquor in violation of the Reed bone-dry law was brought up in the hustings court of Richmond yesterday, and Judge Richardson ruled that this amendment did not deprive the state courts of jurisdiction over such cases.

A case involving the transportation of liquor from a point outside the state had been brought before Judge Crutchfield several days ago. At this trial Judge Crutchfield announced his intention of making a test case out of it to determine whether or not the interstate liquor transportation cases since the passage of the Reed amendment. Over the protest of Mr. Dunford, the attorney for the prohibition commissioner, he turned over the test prisoner to the federal authorities.

It was contended by the representatives of the prohibition commission that the hustings court had original jurisdiction over such cases and that Judge Crutchfield was overstepping his authority in surrendering the jurisdiction of that court. They contended that Judge Richardson was the proper authority before whom it must be settled.

The matter came to the attention of Judge Richardson and he directed a letter to Judge Crutchfield asking that cases of a like nature, be regularly certified to the grand jury.

As an aftermath to this the question was raised in the hustings court yesterday in the trial of D. L. Webster, who was under indictment for bringing liquor into the state. The counsel for the defense, Gilbert K. Pollock and Edgar B. English, filed a demurrer and special plea to the jurisdiction of the court. The court overruled the demurrer and rejected the plea, stating that it felt no doubt of the jurisdiction of the state courts over these interstate liquor transportation charges.

MUST WORK UNDER LICENSE.

Rules and Regulations Governing Baking Industry Already Drawn up. An attempt to reduce bread prices will be the next move of the food administration in assuming control of the principal commodities.

At the request of Administrator Hoover, President Wilson will issue within a few days an order directing that every baker in the country be required to do business under Federal license.

Rules and regulations governing the baking industry already have been drawn up by the food administration, and will be put into operation as soon as the executive order is out. They will provide a standardized loaf of probably two sizes and standardization of the bread contents. A bread formula has been selected, and bakers will be permitted to use no other.

The new war bread will contain a reduced amount of fats, as both the lard and milk content will be cut down considerably. It probably will be produced in twenty-ounce and ten-ounce loaves. No prices will be fixed outright but the regulations will prescribe that only reasonable prices may be charged. Consumers' committees have reported to the administration that in most places loaves of this size can be sold at 10 and 5 cents, respectively.

Food administration officials are giving serious consideration to the situation created by the short wheat crop, and it is believed likely that before many months makers may be required to add a certain amount of corn flour in baking bread. Dietetic experts now are working out formulas containing wheat flour substitutes.

DRY LAW TO BE TESTED.

Prince George's Saloon Man Will Plead Guilty to Having Liquor After October 1.

Hyattsville, Md., Nov. 8.—By agreement between State's Attorney S. Marvin Peach, counsel for the Anti-Saloon League and counsel for saloonkeepers in Bladensburg and vicinity, the validity of the act of the special session of the Legislature, by virtue of which all saloons in the county were closed at midnight, October 31, will be tested through the medium of a habeas corpus proceedings.

This agreement was reached yesterday morning when Justice of the Peace Alfred D. Bailey took up the charged with violating the law by having intoxicants on their premises after October 31, in excess of the quantities allowed by law. When the cases were called it was agreed that they all should be postponed for a week in order that arrangements could be made for testing the constitutionality of the law. The bonds for $500 were continued in each case.

It has been agreed that Edward L. Mahoney will plead guilty to violating the law, and will be committed to jail by the sheriff. He will be released immediately, it is said, and an application for a writ of habeas corpus will be filed in the circuit court and be heard upon a day to be set by the court. In the other cases, it is stated, pleas of not guilty will be entered and jury trials prayed. Robt. W. Walls and J. W. Ryan, Jr., represent the saloonkeepers; James C. Rogers, the Anti-Saloon League, and S. Marvin Peach the State. It is understood that several of the saloons will reopen for the sale of soft drinks.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

More than 2,000 carpenters, it was announced by strike leaders yesterday, joined the force of 800 union men who Tuesday quit work at government cantonments at Newport News because they were not granted an increase of 12 1-2 cents an hour in pay.
Work on the three cantonments in and near the city is practically at a standstill, although contractors are bringing in hundreds of men from elsewhere. Families of the strikers yesterday refused to board and lodge men who did not go out with the strikers and every housewife in the city has been personally requested to take similar action. Contracting firms already have raised the pay of their men from 50 to 82 1-2 cents an hour, they being forced to complete work already begun. Living expenses here have increased more than 100 per cent in many instances and the carpenters say they cannot take care of their families on their present pay.

I. L. Levenson, thirty-two years old, owner of a grocery store at 1209 North Thirty-first street, Richmond, was cut above the throat and seriously wounded by an unidentified negro about 8:45 o'clock Monday night, who had entered the store with intent to steal. Levenson was hurried to the Virginia Hospital for treatment. When he was out Levenson ran from his store about three blocks to a nearby drug store, where he was rendered emergency treatment. At this time he was unable to talk, and it is thought that his wound may prove fatal.

In an altercation between James Filmore and John Shifflett, brothers, at the foot of the Blue Ridge Mountain, in this county, ten miles west of Standardsville, last week, the former was stabbed in the heart by the latter, it is alleged, and died in a few minutes. The dead boy was eighteen years old. The brother is not quite fourteen. He was arrested and bailed so he could attend his brother's funeral Sunday. The boys fell out over the purchase of a sweater by James. The testimony before the coroner's jury was to the effect that John told him his mother would not pay for it. This angered the larger boy, and he attacked his younger brother with a chair, it is said. The cutting followed.

The murder of Judge Albert P.

ginia three years ago had $50,000 in cash and a quantity of valuable jewelry. Not a trace of either has been found and the murdered man was living in abject poverty when he was killed. The dead man's son, Albert L. Chamberlain, declared he intended to trace his father's lost wealth.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Thursday, the Twenty-Ninth of November Set Aside by the President.

It has long been the honored custom of our people to turn in the fruitful autumn of the year in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for His many blessings and mercies to us as a nation. That custom we can follow now even in the midst of the tragedy of a world shaken by war and immeasurable disaster, in the midst of sorrow and great peril, because even amidst the darkness that has gathered about us we can see the great blessings God has bestowed upon us, blessings that are better than mere peace of mind and prosperity of enterprise.

We have been given the opportunity to serve mankind as we once served ourselves in the great day of our Declaration of Independence, by taking up arms against a tyranny that threatened to master and debasemen everywhere and joining with other free peoples in demanding for all the nations of the world what we then demanded and obtained for ourselves. In this day of the revelation of our duty not only to defend our own rights as a nation, but to defend also the rights of free men throughout the world, there has been vouchsafed us in full and inspiring measure the resolution and spirit of united action. We have been brought to one mind and purpose. A new vigor of common counsel and common action has been revealed in us. We should especially thank God that in such circumstances, in the midst of the greater enterprise the spirits of men have ever entered upon, we have, if we but observe a reasonable and practicable economy, abundance with which to supply the needs of those associated with us as well as our own. A new light shines about us. The great duties of a new day awaken a new and greater national spirit in us. We shall never again be divided or wonder what stuff we are made of.

And while we render thanks for these things let us pray Almighty God that in all humbleness of spirit we may look always to Him for guidance; that we may be kept constant in the spirit and purpose of service; that by His grace our minds may be directed and our hands strengthened; and that in His good time liberty and security and peace and the comradeship of a common justice may be vouchsafed all the nations of the earth.

Wherefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate Thursday, the 29th day of November next, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, and invite the people throughout the land to cease upon that day from their ordinary occupations and in their several homes and places of worship to render thanks to God, the great ruler of nations.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done in the District of Columbia this 7th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and forty-second.

By the President:

Woodrow Wilson.
Robert Lansing, Secretary of State.

NEWS OF THE DAY

The Brazilian chamber of deputies yesterday adopted all the measures recommended to the congress by President Braz as reprisals against German aggressions, as well as supplementary measures, including a state of siege. These measures include the annulment of contracts for public works entered into with Germans, prohibition of new land concessions to German subjects and of the transfer of ownership of German properties; control of German banks and German commercial firms and the internment of German suspects. General Silva Faro, it is announced, will be appointed military governor of Rio Janeiro.

The new fatherland party in Germany is said to be increasing at the rate of 31,000 enrollments a day.

Tammany by its victory on election day will hold the balance of power in Congress and be in a position to gain whatsoever it desires politically. Owing to the peculiar division in the House of Representatives, 213 Republicans and 212 Democrats, Tammany, by casting its thirteen votes as a unit, will be the dominating factor.

Major Birdseye B. Lewis, aviation section, Signal Corps, a member of the staff of General Pershing, whose death was unofficially reported several days ago, was a suicide, according to a dispatch from General Pershing to the War Department yesterday afternoon. No details of the suicide are given or any reason cited. The emergency address of Major Lewis was Hannah B. Posey, Stockbridge, Mass.

The Second Liberty Loan has been oversubscribed 54 per cent. The total subscriptions are $4,617,532,309. That was the gratifying announcement of the Treasury Department last night when the tabulators had finished compiling the figures of the huge campaign which closed a week ago Saturday night.

Ernest Hunt, Indian, was shot and instantly killed by the Rev. N. J. Page at the Page home in South Robeson, N. C., Tuesday night. According to information, Hunt went to the Page home about midnight and tried to raise a window in a room where two of Mr. Page's daughters and two lady school teachers were sleeping. When the young woman went to the window to investigate they saw a man run away. They called Mr. Page and told him what had happened. Mr. Page told them if the man returned to notify him. In a short time Hunt returned and tried to raise the window again. When he girls made an alarm Hunt went under the house and was soon back at the window the third time. Mr. Page armed himself with a shotgun and went out into the yard. Hunt advanced toward him and refused to call his name when the pastor asked him to do so. After Page had asked Hunt three times to tell his name the minister shot him in the breast. He ran a few steps and fell dead.

Emperor Carl of Austria has assumed the title of King of Poland, says a dispatch from Berlin, which quotes the Lokal Anzeiger. The article continues as follows: "The latest sitting of the crown council has solved the Polish situation, according to Austria's advice. Poland becomes attached to Austria and Galicia will be a part of Poland." Lithuania and Courland, the paper states, will in all probability be allied with Prussia.

The discovery of the dead body of Mrs. Joseph DeForge, of Indian Orchard, on rocks beneath the Indian Leap bridge at Springfield, Mass., yesterday, and the disappearance of her husband lead relatives to believe the two were held up and thrown from the bridge. They had a considerable sum of money when they left their home. The police are dragging the Chicopee River for the body of the husband.

The Germans began pillaging and burning Udine after the city fell into their hands, according to the archbishop of Udine, who went to Rome for a conference with the Pope.

A dispatch from Bern says the international conference for lasting peace has again been forced to postpone its meeting through lack of delegates. The meeting, which was planned for November 12, is now fixed for November 19.

AMERICANS ARRIVE.

This Country May Furnish Guiding Spirit to Ultimate Victory.

America's mission to the "war conference" of the allies has arrived safely in Britain, the State Department announced last night.

Its personnel follows: Col. Edward M. House, of New York; Admiral W. S. Benson, chief of naval operations; Gen. Tasker H. Bliss, Chief of Staff of the United States army; Oscar T. Crosby, assistant secretary of the treasury; Vance C. McCormick, chairman of the war trade board; Bainbridge Colby, United States shipping board; Dr. Alonzo E. Taylor, representing the food controller; Thomas Nelson Perkins, representing the priority board; Gordon Auchinleck, secretary.

The United States is laying plans to assume the leadership in the war against Germany. Irritation over the discord that still prevails in allied councils, as evidenced in the Italian disaster and in the conflicting claims made to the United States, has convinced the American government that a firm central grip on the conduct of the war is necessary, and that it must supply the "grip."

REVOLT GERMAN PLAN.

Movement is to Cripple Great Britain's Oil Supply in Tampico.

The government received no confirmation last night of alarming reports from the border of the raid spread of the Felix Diaz revolution in Mexico. But two things were made plain. These were:

1. That the Diaz revolt is regarded as a German effort to cripple the allies through a possible stroke against Great Britain's oil supply from the Tampico fields.

2. That these fields and the port of Tampico must be kept open. Not only England, but France and Italy, especially the latter, face oil shortage.

It has been creditably stated that England, foreseeing a possible stoppage of oil, has acquired sufficient stores to maintain her fleet at the highest efficiency for a long period. For numberless other requirements, however, especially her field transport system, she must have great quantities of oil.

GAIN FOR SOCIALISTS.

Elect 7 New York Aldermen, Judge and 10 Members of Assembly.

New York, Nov. 8.—Complete returns compiled yesterday showed that the Socialists of Greater New York elected yesterday seven members of the board of aldermen, a municipal court judge, ten members of the assembly and had given Morris Hillquit, their candidate for mayor, a total vote of 142,178, or four and one half times the Socialist vote for Charles Edward Russell four years ago.

It is the first time in history that the Socialists have been represented in the board of aldermen and the election of a municipal court judge also sets a precedent.

Perhaps the most conspicuous result of the election from a Socialist point of view was the election by East Side voters of Jacob Panken for judge of the municipal court, Second district, which includes all of the East Side south of Fourteenth street. Panken received 13,849 votes, as against 6,378 received by Gustav Hartman, Republican, the incumbent.

three miles from the Mediterranean coast, and three other towns north and northwest of Beersheba, extending their lines eleven miles in some places, according to an official report.

The capture of Gaza, an important place of 35,000 inhabitants, was accomplished this morning, following successful operations to the southeast, in which Gen. Allenby's troops occupied Khawilfeh, eleven miles north of Beersheba, and Tell Abu Harere and Tell Esch Sheri Ah between Gaza and Beersheba.

Thus their whole left wing in Southern Palestine has been advanced from four to eleven miles. The number of prisoners taken by the British is not stated, but on one part of the front six guns were captured from the Turks.

The British cavalry, which played such an important part in the capture of Beersheba last week, performed brilliantly in the latest operations. Gen. Allenby pays tribute to the "magnificent dash and endurance" of all his troops.

Gen. Maurice, chief of military operations in the war office, who has just returned from a military mission to Rome, told me tonight that he was very optimistic regarding operations in Palestine. He explained that the latest victory represents a very serious threat against the Turkish left wing. The situation of the Turks, he said, was precarious.

Advance in Raw Materials Costs Necessitates Small Increase in price

The rising cost of raw materials, increased taxation and advanced wages during the past year have been so great that it has become impossible to continue to sell the San Felice cigar for 8c and still maintain its high quality. The time has come when we are compelled to raise the price of San Felice to 6c.

To those discriminating smokers who appreciate a cigar of merit we ask your continued patronage. It goes without saying that the usual high quality of the San Felice will be maintained. The San Felice cigar Lima, Ohio.
